

Alex Krueger 1-29-86

The funeral services for Alex P. Krueger, 76, Groton, were held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 23, at St. John's Lutheran Church of Groton with the Rev. Dan Elkins officiating.

Burial was in Groton Union Cemetery under the direction of Paetz-nick-Garness Funeral Chapel of Groton.

He died Monday, Jan. 20, 1986, at Dakota Midland Hospital at Aberdeen.

Casketbearers were Gilbert Hinkelman, David Krueger, Sheldon Lenling, Bertell Martin, Roy Olson and Greg Tullis. His friends and relatives were considered honorary casketbearers. Organist was Mrs. Eugene Neuman with David Sultz as soloist, singing, "I Know Who Holds Tomorrow." The congregation sang, "How Great Thou Art," and "I'm But A Stranger Here."

Alex Krueger was born April 28, 1909, in West Hanson Township, to William and Martha Rose Krueger. He attended school in the area and later moved to Groton where he attended high school. He farmed with his father and his brother Richard.

Following his marriage to Lucille Hopp on September 18, 1930, at Groton, he farmed in West Hanson Township and later worked as a real estate agent for Vernon Gerharter Realtors. He sold hail insurance for Farmer's Mutual of Des Moines, Iowa, and was employed as grain inspector at ASCS of Aberdeen for several years.

He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church of Groton and a member of West Hanson School Board for several years.

Survivors include his wife, Groton; one son, Gary, Beloit, Wis.; one daughter, Mrs. Donald (Sharon) Ellingson, Conde; one brother, Richard, Aberdeen; two sisters, Mrs. Albert (Amanda) Badten, Aberdeen, and Sadie Pasch, Ogden, Utah; one half sister, Mrs. Meta Hoops, Groton; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one half-sister.